Under current law, public building commissions (Omaha-Douglas County and Lincoln-Lancaster County) are governed by a board of commissioners consisting of five members. Two members are appointed by the governing body of the relevant county from among its membership, two are appointed by the mayor of the relevant city from among the membership of the city council (with the council's approval), and the fifth member is appointed by the other four members. Members of the commission, while not entitled to compensation under current law, are entitled to reimbursement of expenses. LB698 would provide that the fifth member (as noted previously) is to receive compensation of $100 for each day on which there is a public meeting of the commission. Correspondingly, the public building commissions would incur related costs.
